Big Boy Bangkok

Big Boy Bangkok has just opened in Newstead, bringing a vibrant slice of modern Thai street-food culture to the neighbourhood.

Drawing inspiration from Bangkok's vibrant back-alley eateries, it combines neon-lit décor with bold flavours, serving punchy small plates, elevated classics, and Thai-inspired cocktails in a relaxed, lively atmosphere.

Situated on Masters Street, it's the ideal spot for a fun and flavourful night out.

New Year Fireworks

Celebrate the arrival of 2026 riverside — where the city comes alive with fireworks, music and community spirit.

This year's free fireworks display offers two shows: an early, family-friendly show, and a spectacular midnight fireworks extravaganza.

Bring a picnic blanket or grab takeaway from the on-site food vendors and settle in along the riverfront for one of Brisbane's most iconic New Year celebrations. Best viewing areas include Clem Jones Promenade, Cultural Forecourt, Riverside Green and River Quay.

Milton Markets

If you're after fresh produce, gourmet eats, handmade goods and a relaxed Sunday vibe — Milton Markets is a perfect pick.

Held weekly in the leafy heart of Milton Green on Cribb Street, the market brings together a lively mix of stallholders: from fruit, veg and seafood growers, to bakers, butchers, deli-producers, and artisan food vendors — plus stalls selling crafts, homewares, plants, clothing and gifts.

Bring the family (and your dog — pets are welcome on-leash), enjoy a coffee or brunch from one of the food stalls, browse the handmade goods, and soak up the community atmosphere. With live music, kid-friendly activities and a huge range of options, it's a great way to spend a Sunday morning.
