Dine BNE City

Experience Brisbane's vibrant dining scene this winter as Dine BNE City returns from 1st–30th June. Showcasing exclusive offers, curated set menus, rooftop cocktails and special dining events across Eagle Street, Howard Smith Wharves and the CBD, the month-long program celebrates some of the city's best restaurants and bars. With one-off experiences and seasonal menus throughout June, it's the perfect opportunity to discover new venues and enjoy Brisbane's hospitality scene.

Source: https://www.theurbanlist.com/brisbane/a-list/dine-bne-city-2026

Dine BNE City - Brisbane

Romeo Italian

Experience a playful take on Italian dining this June at Romeo Italian, the new Oxford Street venue helmed by Simone Presta. Blending tapas-style dining with classic Italian flavours and generous hospitality, the menu features bite-sized bocconi, handmade pastas, vibrant share plates and a curated selection of Italian wines. With its lively atmosphere and contemporary neighbourhood feel, Romeo Italian is quickly becoming one of Bulimba's standout new dining destinations this winter.

Source: https://www.indailyqld.com.au/theweekendedition-brisbane/food-drink/2026/05/20/romeo-italian-bulimba

Romeo Italian - Bulimba

Incognito Art Show

Celebrate creativity and community this July as The Incognito Art Show – Brisbane arrives at Long Island Brisbane from 21st–26th July. Featuring hundreds of anonymous A5-sized artworks available to purchase for $100 each, the exhibition invites visitors to discover emerging and established artists without knowing the creator until after purchase. Supporting artists with disabilities through inclusive creative opportunities, the event combines art, surprise and community impact within one of Brisbane's vibrant cultural precincts.

Source: https://allevents.in/newstead/incognito-art-show-brisbane/200030005194323

Incognito Art Show- Long Island

Le Festival

Experience a taste of France this July as Le Festival returns to Roma Street Parkland from 24th–26th July. Celebrating French food, wine, music and culture across three vibrant days, the 2026 edition will feature gourmet cuisine, Champagne and wine tastings, live performances, artisan markets and immersive cultural experiences inspired by the spirit of France. With a lively open-air atmosphere and entertainment throughout the weekend, Le Festival remains one of Brisbane's most iconic winter cultural events.

Source: https://www.indailyqld.com.au/theweekendedition-brisbane/food-drink/2026/05/21/le-festival-brisbane

Le Festival - Roma St

The Royal Queensland Show

Experience one of Brisbane's most iconic annual events this August as Royal Queensland Show returns to Brisbane Showgrounds from Saturday 8th to Sunday 16th August. Better known as the Ekka, the eight-day celebration brings together agriculture, entertainment, food, live music, carnival rides, show bags and fireworks in a vibrant showcase of Queensland culture and community spirit. Residents can also look forward to the annual Ekka public holiday on Wednesday 12th August, making it the perfect opportunity to enjoy the festivities across the city.

Source: https://www.ekka.com.au/

The Royal Queensland Show - Brisbane

Y43 Building Info

- Rush Broadband is currently offering Y43 residents one month free when signing up to its high-speed fibre internet service.

- Construction works are currently underway at The Frank next door. Should residents have any concerns or experience any issues relating to these works, please contact Building Management for assistance.

- Visitor car parking is limited to a maximum stay of four hours. Should additional parking be required, residents are asked to contact Building Management directly.

- Cavalé pilates is held adjacent to the Long Island tranquil waterfall every Wednesday from 6:30am - 7:15am. Register via Acuity and bring your own mat and towel. For resident owners and Cavale-managed tenants.

Thank you, Y43 Management.